Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act [and the Health Records Act], an individual has the right to obtain access to any personal information which the School holds about them and to advise the Schools of any perceived inaccuracy. The Schools may, at their discretion, on the request of a pupil grant that pupil access to information held by the School about them, or allow a pupil to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their Parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the pupil and/or the pupil's personal circumstances so warranted.
